

ÍNDICE

	Página
Introduction
Strategic intelligence and economic security	9
Introduction.....	9
Economic globalization and geo-economy	11
Strategic and economic intelligence.....	15
Models of economic intelligence	18
Strategic intelligence and economic security.....	22
Influence as an essential element in economic intelligence.....	25
Economic intelligence and cyber security	27
Goal of this strategic dossier	29
Chapter I
The role of strategic intelligence in the modern world	33
Introduction.....	34
There are no longer any blue or red draughts on the new board	39
The redesigned Kent trinity	45
Organisation: the Matrix has already been created	45
A truly strategic new product	51
Strategic process: the new plan.....	54
Conclusions.....	57
Chapter II
A study on economic warfare and associated problems	63
Introduction.....	64
Emergence of the founding principles of economic warfare	64
Violence and survival	65
Resources and territories	65
The difficult dynamics linked to colonisation	66

	Página
Control of trade routes	67
The overlapping of war and the economy.....	70
The influence of economic conflicts on the war's direction.....	70
Ideological fight and strong economic relationships between powers...	71
Creation of structures dedicated to economic warfare.....	73
The geopolitical justifications of conquest	75
The conquest against commercial imperialism.....	75
Conquest of living space	77
Covering up economic warfare	79
Dominance strategies	80
Recovery strategies.....	84
Change in the paradigm of economic warfare.....	86
Economic security policies.....	86
The impact of economic strategies on increasing power	88
Limits of western ethnocentrism	89
The contradictions between the United States and Europe.....	90
The bad effects of the liberal model.....	92
Conclusion.....	93
Chapter III
Legal intelligence: the strategic value of the law in economic security	97
Approach	99
The law as a collection of regulations.....	101
The law as an object of intelligence.....	105
The law as an intelligence tool	110
Conclusions.....	118
Chapter IV
Competitive intelligence: a new paradigm in the strategic direction of or- ganisations in a globalised world	127
Executive summary.....	129
Introduction.....	130
CI and strategic direction	132
CI field of activity	133
Benefits that ci provides to the organisation	133
CI as a process	134
CI as an organisational function or management approach	137
Essential stages in the ci working process	138
Planning	139
Obtaining information	140
Analysis.....	141
Communication, application of what has been provided and evaluation	142
How CI is organised.....	143
Reference countries in the CI practice. The situation in Spain. The range of training.....	144
CI promoted from institutions.....	145
Training offer	147
CI basics. The state of the art.....	147

	Página
Implications for organisations. Their use vs. Their protection	150
Influence and security inside companies.....	155
The illegal nature of industrial espionage and its negative consequences on CI in companies	156
Implications for territories: territorial intelligence.....	159
Development perspectives	160

Chapter V

The economic risks of cyberwar.....	167
Cyberwar and Cyber Conflict: the Economic Dimension.....	169
Cyber as the Agent of an Economic Paradigm Shift	173
The Cyber World of Tomorrow	176
Threat Development – the New Economic Reality of Cyber Insecurity	177
Evolving Attack Modes.....	178
The New Enemy: Collective Actors of Cyber Conflict.....	182
Measuring the cost of cyber conflict: is quantifying possible?.....	184
Limits on Cyberwarfare Proper	186
Active and Passive Cyber Defense	190
An Emerging Comprehensive Information Security Management System....	191
Creating a harmonized legal framework to combat cyber crime and cyber conflict.....	191
Self-Protection	192
Designing for Security	193
Standard-Setting and Best Practices	194
Protection of Critical Infrastructures.....	195
Resilience in Cloud Computing and Mobile Computing.....	196
National and International Cooperation in Cybersecurity.....	198
A Culture of Cybersecurity: Norms of Behavior for the Cyber Age	200
Composition of the working group	205
Strategic Dossier.....	207